This week has seen the end of Trimester Two exams get underway and our student body have been busily preparing and sitting these exams. To see the amount of students working in the Dining Hall, JCR and other areas, in both groups and individually, has been a real highlight, reaffirming the inclusive community and positive support structures that our students are embracing.

In exciting news for the College the Inaugural New Zealand Sports Tour in 2017 is taking shape, with a huge uptake from current students. It will be exciting to see them venture to the South Island to represent Albies against other universities, whilst taking in some of the magnificent tourist attractions at the same time. More information about this exciting new initiative will come to light early next year.

I also feel compelled to thank our staff and student body at this time for all their ongoing contributions to the College. I trust that the exams finish well for each of our students and that they enjoy a deserved break from their studies. I especially thank our Valedicts for their ongoing contribution to Albies and wish each of them every success for their future endeavours. We hope you stay in touch with the College, and know that your contributions to Albies and legacy left will continue the great name that the college community has long been renowned for.

With my sincerest thanks to all and best wishes as always,

Jas Lincoln
ACADEMIC REPORT

It is that time of the year again! Exams are upon us for those unlucky enough to have them. Good luck to everyone and I hope that your results are everything you hope them to be.

I would like to thank this year’s wonderful academic team for all their hard work and dedication in providing this unique service to the students here at Albies. This year’s teams consisted of Sarah Barton as Deputy SAA, Alice Bowler, Georgia Devenish, Suz Nye, Steph Jordan, Ben Buckland, Tim Keys and Olivia Forster. Next year Sarah will take on my role as SAA and Georgia as Deputy SAA, I wish them both all the best in these positions. I would also like to that all the management and admin staff for their assistance this year too.

All the best and have a safe and happy holiday!

Senior Academic Advisor

LET’S TALK WITH LOUISE

Hi all,

Some of you will return to St Albert’s next year and some of you will be taking the next step in your careers, which can be confusing and overwhelming. UNE has a great link to help get you started http://www.une.edu.au/current-students/support/student-support/career-development/resources/preparing-for-graduate-employment Lots of helpful tips from preparing applications to interviewing. Check it out.

If you feel like having a chat, I’m at college Monday’s, Wednesday’s and Thursday’s from 12-3.30 pm. I am also available at the Centacare office in the morning on the same days. Additionally, I’m also available to talk over the phone or via email and I can be contacted on 67387200 or at l.carstairs@centacarenenw.com.au

Hope you all have a great week.

Lou
